Get ready... here comes another super Fall Fair! Plans are a-brewing and volunteers are mustering for this year's exciting Quadra Island Fall Fair to be held September 9.

This is the catalogue: hold onto this insert as it's your handy guide to planning your entries and a guide to all the exhibit categories (so you can nudge your talented friends to enter too).

You can also find it online at www.quadraisland.ca/fallfair.

Have you considered taking a two hour volunteer shift? Send a note to qifallfair@gmail.com.

September 8 is the day to deliver your truckload of exhibit entries. We are looking forward to a landslide of garden cornucopia as well as an amazing array of "over wintered" creative projects to fill the main hall.

September 9 is THE day to spend with family and friends taking in the fair. Music! Activities! Displays! Fun! As always, look for a few surprises!

fun events, demonstrations, and friendly competitions:

here's some of what's happening... details on event start times available closer to Fair day.

- the spirit of volunteerism, on which our vibrant community depends,
- the pursuit of self-reliance in food production and sustainable living

The Fair aspires to inform, entertain, delight, encourage, and inspire!

Before you fill out your entry form:

- All entries must be grown or made by the exhibitor on Quadra or the outer islands.
- Entries must have been completed within the 24 months leading up to the fair.
- Any over-sized item (anything BIG!), please notify convenor.
- When reading the criteria, (3) indicates the number of items required;  indicates People's Choice Awards.
- Category classes may be combined or re-allocated at Convenor's discretion.
- Exhibits will be judged against the stated criteria, not against other exhibits.
- The judges decisions are final.
